MSWG chairman Abdul Halim retires

PETALING JAYA: Minority Shareholder Watchdog Group (MSWG) chairman Tan Sri Abdul Halim Ali, 68, announced his retirement at the conclusion of the group's AGM yesterday.

In a statement, MSWG said Abdul Halim decided to retire after a long tenure as director of the watchdog for 12 years in line with the company's policy.

Abdul Halim was appointed as chairman on April 10, 2001. He also served as chairman of the Employees Provident Fund from 2001 to 2007.

He is currently the chairman of Malaysia Building Society Bhd, Malakoff Corp Bhd, University Technology Malaysia and Multimedia Development Corp Sdn Bhd.

He also sits on the board of Esso Malaysia Bhd and IJM Bhd.
