Covid Creates Unique Governance Issues

Program Overview

The Covid Pandemic has forced fundamental changes on how Corporations must function to survive; they had to adapt and evolve very quickly to sustain themselves. While certain sectors have shuttered almost permanently, the technology and health sectors have recorded astronomical gains. But whether struggling to survive or growing exponentially – each situation creates new governance risks for the Board of Directors, Management, Internal Auditors, and Shareholders. Hence the ability to Identify, Manage and Mitigate these new risks becomes increasingly significant for the long term sustainability of the corporate entity and its stakeholders.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- Chairman and Board of Directors
- Senior Management and all C-Suites
- Internal & External Auditors
- Investigative, Compliance & Anti-Fraud Officers
- Company Secretaries & Corporate Governance Officers
- Legal Counsel, Audit & Tax Advisory Firms
- Public Sector Departmental Heads and Officers
- Head of Statutory Bodies
- Procurement Heads and Officers
